

Some time ago a party on Broadway attempted to sell $5.00 gold pieces on the street for $2.50; there were no buyers. We are going to attempt something similar. We have a lot of Black and Blue Cheviot Trousers, which are worth $4.00 a pair. We put them on a special counter and mark them $2.00. One pair only to each customer. Now, how many will buy this "Gold Piece" at half price? Our advertising man thinks it will draw big, so here goes $4.00 Trousers at $2.00.

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

The different machinists' unions in this city are considering a proposition to amalgamate. John Schwab has been elected Corresponding Secretary of Branch 5 of the General Workmen's Benefit Union.

The Executive Board of Furniture Workers' Union No. 13 holds an important special meeting this evening.

The demand for union hours and wages and the recognition of the Iron Molders' Union have been the subjects of the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor, held at the Hotel Hamilton, No. 136, next Monday, Dec. 19.

Branch 1 of Journeymen Brewers' Union No. 1 has elected William Trautman, Secretary. He is employed by the Anchor Brewing Company at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

William J. O'Brien has again been re-elected Delegate to the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor, held at the Hotel Hamilton, No. 136, next Monday, Dec. 19.

Branch 5 of the Independent Bakers and Confectioners' Union, The Secretary is L. Klein, and M. Dickman was made Sergeant-at-Arms. The other officers will be elected next Monday.

Francis Nash, President of Federal Union 5,611, powers and rammeters, announces that members of that organization who fail to pay their arrears at to-night's meeting, which is the last meeting for 1894, will be expelled. A similar announcement is made by James Gough, President of Bricklayers' Union No. 7.

August J. H. Williams, of the New York Branch of the Atlantic Coast Seamen's Union, reports that shiping is greatly improved in Brooklyn, and that the agitation meetings, held at 51 South street, have resulted in increasing the membership.

Mr. Williams is also securing evidence showing the ill treatment and all sorts of tricks and devices by which seamen are forced out of their wages. This evidence is to be submitted to Congress by Representative Maguire, of California.

A Benefit for His Widow Now.
The benefit tendered to Joseph Parquhar and the widow of James O'Callahan by members of Typographical Union No. 6, which was to have taken place Nov. 27, but was unavoidably postponed, will take place this evening at 726 Hall, 98 and 100 Fourth street, near the Bowery. The well-known comedy, "A Celebrated Case," will be presented by the Newspaper Dramatic League, in the following by a reception and ball. Mr. Parquhar, one of the beneficiaries, died this morning at 12:15, leaving a widow and two small children entirely unprovided for.

Young Harper is Not Engaged.
The reported engagement between Mr. William A. Harper, of Harper Brothers, and Miss Olive Chamberlin, is contradicted in an open letter from Miss Chamberlin's mother, who lives at the Arison, Fifty-fifth street and Broadway.

Car Gets Even with Its Driver.
John Fraser, a grisman on car 226, of the Third Avenue cable line, was struck in the eye by the lever of his car this morning, near the corner of Grand street. He was so badly injured that he had to be removed to St. Vincent's Hospital.

Sailor Men Desert the Navy.
Owing to harsh discipline and the hard work of getting ready to sail, the United States gunboat Canine has lost by desertion seven of her men. Capt. Perry denies that there is any general dissatisfaction on board, and defends Lieut. Davenport, against whom charges of over-severity have been made.

Sues for Loss of Beauty.
Emile West, a sourette, who lives at 253 West Thirtieth street, is suing the "Star Dental Parlor" company, for $20,000 damages, for disfiguring her face. Miss West says that a year ago she went to the "Star Dental Parlor" and had a tooth pulled. Soon after her jaw began to ache, and an operation was necessary. This disfigured the sourette's face, and as the doctors say the trouble arose from carelessness or lack of skill on the part of the dentist, she has brought suit against the company.

Had Fits on the Elevated.
Fannie Roberts, nineteen years old, of 51 West One Hundredth street, was taken sick with fits on the "E" road station at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Eighth avenue, at 1:30 o'clock this morning. She was taken to the Harlem Hospital.
